About Abby Shields

Abby Shields is a dynamic, international speaker and author who brings passion, warmth, and knowledge to her presentations. Her charisma and content captures her audiences' attention and brings about understanding that leads to action and change. Abby speaks on an array of relevant topics for today's business and educational world that include matters of communication, self-sabotage, and interpersonal skills.

Abby's audience members have been quoted saying, "Abby's programs are well-researched, fluid, hands on, educating, entertaining, human, soulful, gripping, and most meaningful." Yet, what makes Abby remarkably different is her unique ability to read and adapt to the needs of her audience. Through her gift of insight into the heart of an organization and its individuals, Abby is able to lead her audience to discoveries about themselves, their work, their group attitudes, and their own behavior in a way that encourages and inspires them to reach their full potential. This exceptional ability has led many organizations to seek after Abby as a consultant on organizational climate,
